

VOLUNTARY CONSENT

TO EMPLOYER'S SEARCH OF APPLICANT REPORTS

In connection with evaluating my application for employment, I understand that McCormick Theological Seminary may obtain reports from a consumer reporting agency. Such reports may include, without limitation, credit information, "consumer" information and reports as defined in or covered in the Fair Credit and Reporting Act, employment history, driving records, and civil and criminal records, among other public records ("Applicant Reports").

By signing this document, I freely and voluntarily authorize McCormick Theological Seminary and/or its agents to obtain Applicant Reports. I also authorize McCormick Theological Seminary to make an independent investigation of my background and character which may include, but not be limited to, a review of public records, motor vehicle records, all references, past employment history, and records maintained by retail protective and security associations.

I also understand that failing to reveal prior employment or omitting and/or falsifying information relating to my background will result in refusal to hire or dismissal.

I hereby authorize, without reservation, any law enforcement agency, institution, information service bureau, school, employer, reference or insurance company contacted by McCormick Seminary or its agent, to furnish the information described above.

The following information is required by law enforcement agencies and other entities for positive identification purposes when checking public records. It is confidential and will not be used for any other purposes. I hereby release the employer and agents and all persons agencies, and entities providing information or reports about me from any and all liability arising out of the requests for our release of any of the above mentioned information or reports. By signing this document I acknowledge that I have read and understand the above statements and conditions.
